

Career Growth Path

Build readiness for more responsibility through consistent results, clean operations, coachability, and contribution to the team.

Use this guide while watching, practicing, and reviewing. Write notes in your own words, then confirm live procedures against the current SOP.

Learning objectives

- Describe the foundation for growth
- Recognize readiness signals
- Use feedback without defensiveness
- Discuss a development path with your manager

Key ideas

- Advancement follows demonstrated readiness rather than a fixed calendar
- Quality and clean records matter alongside output
- Leadership begins with helping others succeed
- Your manager and current role expectations define the next development step

Practice and reflection

- Explain the main idea of Career Growth Path without reading a script.
- Name one behavior you can demonstrate in your next seller or team interaction.
- Write one question you still need a manager or current SOP to answer.
- Record the next action you will take and when you will take it.

Source of truth

Current written SOP, role sheet, offer letter, and manager direction control when live procedures or role terms differ from training.

Quick review

Use these prompts for retrieval practice. Answer first, then compare your response with the guide.

1. What are the foundational tasks for someone starting at BMH Group?
Working leads; Qualifying sellers; Building a pipeline; Handing off to acquisitions
2. What qualities make a lead 'ready' for the acquisition team handoff?
Clean; Well-documented; Genuinely prepared for the next stage
3. Which level of lead involves dealing with emotional family dynamics?
Probate situations
4. How should a team member approach sellers in financial distress?
By navigating sensitive conversations with skill
5. What marks the transition to the 'next level' beyond complex lead management?
Presenting offers; Negotiating terms; Closing deals directly
6. What skill is required when a straightforward approach to a deal fails?
The ability to structure deals creatively

Manager review notes
