

Real Estate Terms Glossary

Build the vocabulary needed to follow property, title, financing, and transaction conversations without guessing.

Use this guide while watching, practicing, and reviewing. Write notes in your own words, then confirm live procedures against the current SOP.

Learning objectives

- Define distressed, off-market, on-market, MLS, and listing terms
- Distinguish wholesaling, assignment, and double-close concepts
- Recognize subject-to and seller-financing structures
- Ask for clarification when a term affects a seller

Key ideas

- Terms are tools for understanding, not jargon to impress sellers
- Translate technical language into plain English
- Never guess about legal or title questions
- Use the current deal record as the source for property facts

Practice and reflection

- Explain the main idea of Real Estate Terms Glossary without reading a script.
- Name one behavior you can demonstrate in your next seller or team interaction.
- Write one question you still need a manager or current SOP to answer.
- Record the next action you will take and when you will take it.

Source of truth

Current written SOP, role sheet, offer letter, and manager direction control when live procedures or role terms differ from training.

Quick review

Use these prompts for retrieval practice. Answer first, then compare your response with the guide.
