

Career Growth Path

Build capability in your current role through deliberate practice, useful feedback, coachability, and reliable execution.

Use this guide while watching, practicing, and reviewing. Write notes in your own words, then confirm live procedures against the current SOP.

Learning objectives

- Use a practice and feedback loop
- Respond to coaching without defensiveness
- Connect capability to current role expectations
- Confirm any increase in ownership with your manager and current written role plan

Key ideas

- Practice, apply feedback, and review the result
- Capability means using knowledge and skills reliably in current work
- Your manager and current written role plan define your responsibilities and expectations
- Take on increased ownership only after the change is documented in your current written role plan

Practice and reflection

- Explain the main idea of Career Growth Path without reading a script.
- Name one behavior you can demonstrate in your next seller or team interaction.
- Write one question you still need a manager or current SOP to answer.
- Record the next action you will take and when you will take it.

Source of truth

Current written SOP, role sheet, offer letter, and manager direction control when live procedures or role terms differ from training.

Quick review

Use these prompts for retrieval practice. Answer first, then compare your response with the guide.

1. What is the practical focus of career growth in this lesson?

Strengthening capability in your current role

2. Which actions belong in a deliberate development loop?

Practice a relevant skill; Ask for specific feedback; Apply the feedback; Review the result

3. Feedback is useful only when it confirms that your current approach is already correct.

False

4. What should you do when feedback is unclear?

Ask a clarifying question before applying it

5. Which behaviors demonstrate coachability?

Listen without becoming defensive; Confirm the action to practice; Apply the feedback in the work; Return with evidence of the change

6. What is the source of truth for your current responsibilities?

Your current written role plan and manager

Manager review notes
